STRONG RESOURCES. MEANINGFUL SUPPORT. LASTING IMPACT.

We Know We Missed the Adoption Window.

We invested four years developing Tennessee-specific social studies programs, and we were disappointed when those resources were not included in the state adoption process.

While we cannot change that outcome, our commitment to Tennessee educators and students remains unchanged.

Tennessee Educators Still Have a Choice.

Districts across Tennessee can still bring our research-based social studies programs into their classrooms.

We're here to support you with exceptional resources, local expertise, and a partnership built for success.
